FEARS.

A. F. Blount of Nicholas county is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Fears.

President T. M. Rex is making some needed repairs on the C. C. S. H. and M. Turnpike.

This week will about wind up tobacco and corn cutting. Tobacco is light and corn about an average crop.

Our music school closed Tuesday evening with some improvement in singing, but not much headway in reading music.

Our public school is now in progress with Miss Georgia Darragh as teacher. We guess she knows how to wield the rule of correction and is a first-class teacher.

James Taylor moved to Ohio this week where he expects to make his future home. Mr. Taylor should make it convenient to remain with us until after the November election.

Everybody seems to be attending to their own business and not bothering with the Presidential campaign, the cholera or the G. A. R. Encampment, or to covet anything that belongs to their neighbor and seem to be living in perfect oblivion as to what's going on in the world.

MORANBURG.

John Higgins was in Maysville Tuesday on legal business.

Don't forget the quarterly meeting at old Stone Church next Saturday and Sunday.

E. D. Pickett is prizing tobacco at the warehouse at Brashear's Station this week.

The early cutting of tobacco in this section is curing up nicely. It will be a good color.

Tom Higgins of near Camp Kenton called on his brother John of the creek last Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Perrine and daughter Miss Nellie of Tuckahoe visited on the creek last Thursday.

Henry Eubanks lost a colt last Tuesday. Joseph McNutt lost his fine colt Wednesday, also.

The farmers have commenced cutting up their corn. About half a crop is all that we can report.

S. N. Robinson wants the church members to quit talking in time of Prayer-meeting. It is a bad example for outsiders.

John Furlong has sold his farm to Elder William Hall and will move on the farm of George Coffey next spring, now occupied by Constable McNutt.

Miss Kittie Thomas of near Maysville visited Miss Millie Robinson of the Bottom this week and attended Prayer-meeting here Wednesday night.

Quite a number of young people attend the Prayer-meeting at the M. E. Church, and seem to be interested. We are always glad to report something good of our people.

What has become of the Springdale correspondent? There are folks down here that are always glad to hear from that neck o' woods. Let us hear from you often, brother.

Last Tuesday as Tobe Strausbaugh was returning home from Maysville the horse he was driving scared and jumped, throwing him out of the wagon, bruising him considerably about the head and shoulders.
